Joe Fried is one of only a few lawyers in America who limits his entire legal practice to handling truck crash cases. Based out of Atlanta Georgia, Joe has handled truck crash cases in over 20 States around the Country and has helped recover more than $400 million for clients. He holds several record settlements and verdicts in truck crash cases.

When he is not actually handling cases, Joe is writing about and teaching other lawyers around the USA how to get the best results possible in commercial motor vehicle crash cases. He has authored books, book chapters, peer reviewed articles and a Trial Guides DVD specific to handling truck crash cases and has given over 200 presentations around the Country specific to this field.

Joe is a nationally recognized leader in trucking litigation. He is currently the Chair of the American Association of Justice Trucking Litigation Group, President of the National Trial Lawyers Trucking Division, and Founder of the Truck Accident Attorneys Roundtable and the Academy of Truck Accident Attorneys.

Joe brings a diverse background to each case. He is a former judge and police officer, has real world training in accident investigation and reconstruction, physics, engineering, and human factors. At the same time, Joe is known for his unique ability to find and tell the compelling human story that underlies each of his cases.
